

Dr. Ellul is a graduate of the Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College (CMCC) and holds a Master's degree in Health Studies and Clinical Teaching from Athabasca University. With over a decade of teaching experience, Dr. Ellul has held faculty positions at CMCC, Seneca Polytechnic and Durham College. She is currently the Board Chair for the Canadian Chiropractic Research Foundation (CCRF) and the Chair of the School of Computer Programming and Analysis within the Faculty of Applied Sciences and Engineering Technology at Seneca Polytechnic. In 2025, she co-authored the textbook Modern Office Administration, published by Northrose Educational Resources, contributing insights into the field of office management and education. Dr. Ellul continues to maintain a part-time clinical practice in Ontario, Canada.