

Jane Cook- DC, DACBR, MSc (APD), MSc MSK (US)

Jane graduated as Valedictorian from the AECC in 1989 and enjoyed practicing in the East of England until returning to the AECC to undertake the residency for the DACBR in the early 1990's. She received her DACBR in 1994 and was offered a full-time teaching post at the AECC, now HSU, where she remains on faculty today.

In 2007, Jane received an MSc in Advanced Professional Practice and in 2011, an MSc in Musculoskeletal Ultrasound.

Ultrasound imaging remains a great passion and Jane is involved in delivering education for the MSK ultrasound programs offered at HSU. She is also part of the scanning team for the busy HSU Clinical and Rehabilitation Services.
