

Kim Corfixen – Chiropractor – graduated from University of Southern Denmark in 2011. Kim has, since his graduation, been interested in the Dry Needling technique and wrote a book in 2012 with Corrie Myburgh. Since then, they have educated physiotherapists and chiropractors in the technique and writing articles. Kim also has a passion for MSK ultrasound, which comes to play in perfecting the skill of anatomy and palpation. Kim works as a fulltime chiropractor and use the dry needling technique daily.