

Philippa Oakley is a chiropractor and healthcare consultant with a particular focus on Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI). She was named British Chiropractic Association Chiropractor of the Year (2022–2023) in recognition of her contributions to embedding EDI within the profession.

Philippa is Clinical Director of Acorn Health, an award-winning chiropractic clinic in Wiltshire. She also serves on the Board of the British Chiropractic Association and is chair of their Continuing Professional Development Committee.

Specialising in clinical LGBTQ+ inclusivity, Philippa has developed pioneering CPD training on inclusive, hands-on care for manual therapists, now used by clinicians in private practice, the NHS, and international healthcare settings. She has worked extensively with healthcare organisations, NHS Trusts, and Integrated Care Systems to provide training, education, and strategic support to refine EDI approaches and enhance patient-centred communication. Philippa also served as LGBT Development Officer for the ground-breaking NHS Rainbow Badges Assessment Scheme.

Her consultancy work spans both public and private sector organisations, supporting teams to embed inclusive practices through practical, outcome-focused EDI strategies.
